AOSTA & ROME, ITALY

March 4-14, 2011

Aosta, Italy is the city at the convergence of 2 rivers forming the beautiful Aosta Valley in the Italian Alps. Founded by the Romans over 2,000 years ago the city is now a modern, vibrant trading center but the Roman influence is still present with ancient walls and architecture still visible. The Europe Hotel is located in the city center within easy walking distance to each end of town – shops, museums, tours, bars all close by. The ski area of Pila can be reached by gondola – only a few blocks away. At Pila the ski terrain and views are spectacular. The more adventurous can take a 1 hour trip to the Mont Blanc ski area and Courmayer “The Pearl of the Alps.” The skiing and shopping are labeled the “5th Avenue” or the best in Europe. While in Aosta, there’s plenty to do – Florida Ski Council parties and a mountain lunch, not to mention optional daily activities of your choice.

Rome is one of the greatest cities in history. There’s the Spanish Steps, St. Peter’s Basilica, Trevi Fountain, Pantheon, Coliseum, gardens and villas, shopping, Rome’s cuisine, nightlife and the Traffic!! Our Rome adventure begins on Thursday, the 10th, with a train trip from Milan through central Italy where we can relax and enjoy the scenery over a bottle (or two) of wine, cheese and crisp bread. Upon arrival in Rome we transfer to our hotel, unpack, clean up and experience a night out on our own to dine at a local trattoria. The next day a 3 hour tour of the city and places of interest will help us get our bearings. During the rest of our Roman holiday (3 days) many of us will go back to do tours or sightsee what we want to as time permits. In the evenings we will meet at the hotel for happy hour and conversation before dinner with friends.

THE CANYONS - PARK CITY, UTAH

Last Chance Before the Heat

This week does not match the Escambia or Santa Rosa school systems Spring Breaks

The Canyons at Park City, Utah has some of their best snow of the year in late March without the severe winter cold – Spring skiing! This is also the week of Spring Gruv with lots of activities and free concerts. The Canyons has over 3700 acres of skiable terrain, 156 miles of trails, with 8 peaks. On the first ski day we will be guided by several Mountain Hosts over the vast resort. Slated for 2011 is another 300 acres.

We will be staying at the Silverado Lodge with fire places, full kitchens, outdoor heated pool and hot tub, WiFi, ski storage, shuttle. Silverado Lodge guests get special priority lift tickets which get you around the lines at the base gondola and two other lifts on the mountain. The base gondola is an 8 minute walk from the Silverado; if this is too far, a $320 per-person upgrade will put you in the Grand Summit with ski-in/out, just yards from the base gondola.

PACKAGE INCLUDES

- An early or later flight on American Airlines, Pensacola to Salt Lake City with a stop in Dallas (baggage fees not included)
- Charter bus & baggage handling from the airport to lodging
- 7 nights Lodging
- Taxes and resort fees
- 5 day lift ticket at The Canyons
- Survivor dinner
- Pre-trip meet and greet

OPTIONS

- The first 20 deposits hold a seat on the early flight which arrives in time to see the premiere Spring Gruv “pond skimming” event.

- Free Spring Gruv concerts
- Ski at Deer Valley (no snowboards) and Park City Resort
- Shuttle to Park City with many restaurants and shopping
- First Tracks - get on the mountain before the general public for $60
- Heli-skiing, sleigh rides, snowshoe tours, x-country skiing, fishing, snow mobiles
- Ride and drive a groomer

Some of the two bedroom suites have a pair of queens in one bedroom if you need your own bed.

*We can go over 32 people if they commit before October 15 – we are holding 10 extra spaces for a limited time.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

- We will need an image of your Driver's License or TSA acceptable ID for the purposes of ticketing.
- This is a 10% beginner terrain mountain
- You must be a member in good standing of the Pensacola Ski Club or any Florida Ski Council Club. Dependents 21 or older must be Club members. Under 18 requires parent/guardian signed release of liability.

WINE COUNTRY CALIFORNIA

April 24 - May 1, 2011

The Pensacola Ski Club (PSC) will visit California wine country and San Francisco in April 2011 for seven nights. We will stay four nights in Sonoma at the Sonoma Lodge. It's located just one block from the historic Sonoma Plaza.

Come enjoy America's premier wine, spa and coastal destination. See the stunning vistas of vineyards, rugged coastline and California's rolling hills. During the winery tours, winemakers will greet you as they explain their craft in a casual tasting room. With more than 250 superb wineries and over 60,000 acres of vineyards, Sonoma County is a wine-lover's paradise. We will also be staying 3 nights in San Francisco at the Holiday Inn Fisherman's Wharf. You will get a chance to visit all those "must-see" sights in San Francisco, including the Golden Gate Bridge, Fisherman's Wharf, China Town, Golden Gate Park, Grace Cathedral, the Museum of Modern Art, Mission Delores, Nob Hill, Alcatraz and ride the cable car.

Come be a part of this exciting adventure!
